WELLS FARGO GIVES $10,000 TO LATERN HOUSE

Wells Fargo's Donation Helps Toward $7 Million Capital Campaign Goal

OGDEN, May 9, 2013 – Wells Fargo gave $10,000 to Lantern House at a check-presentation ceremony today in Ogden. The donation will help Lantern House get closer to reaching its $7 million capital campaign goal, which currently is approaching the $6 million mark, to build a new shelter.

"As the groundbreaking for Lantern House draws closer, we feel very fortunate to partner with St. Anne's and its wonderful employees and volunteers to help improve the quality of life for residents in our community," said Denise Winslow, Wells Fargo Community Affairs manager for Utah. "We are delighted that our gift will help to feed hungry individuals, families and children by providing needed kitchen equipment for the new shelter. It's amazing to see how much a warm meal can do to lift the spirits of those who are hungry and homeless."

Last year alone, Wells Fargo donated more than $1.6 million to nearly 250 Utah nonprofit organizations, and its Utah team members personally gave more than $1.3 million to nonprofits across the state.

In response to Wells Fargo's generous gift, Allan Lipman, capital campaign co-chair stated: "We are striving to serve the homeless in our community. Friends like Wells Fargo are helping us build a new shelter to address the growing need of the escalating population of the homeless."

The Lantern House will be built on a five acre site located near 33rd and Pacific Ave. – northwest of the Newgate Mall in Ogden. It will provide 254 beds – 14 family rooms with eight beds each, 112 individual beds and 30 overflow beds. Groundbreaking for the new shelter is anticipated sometime this summer.
